Balmaceda Hiding.

By Associated Press.
New York, Sept. 8.—A Herald's cable dispatch from Valparaiso, Chili, of September 7th, says: Rumors continue to spread concerning the whereabouts of the fugitive President of Chili, Balmaceda. It is now reported that he has taken refuge in some one of the foreign legations or else has concealed himself in a monastery. If he has been fortunate enough to gain admission to a legation he will in all likelihood be protected from the wrath of his triumphant enemies. If, on the contrary, he has sought refuge in a monastery, he is in imminent danger of being captured. The Junta will undoubtedly cause the monasteries to be searched for him if they put any faith in the report. It seems hardly plausible however, that he should seek asylum with the clerical party, as it has been a recognized fact ever since the outbreak of the war in Chili that the priests were almost unanimously in sympathy with the Congressionals.

Ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs, Adunato, while traveling toward Santiago to-day, was stopped at Quilota, 55 miles from here, by an armed body of men.

The Lion Hours.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 8.—Lord Salisbury has written a letter to a correspondent, in which the British Premier, referring to privileges which the Porte is supposed to have granted Russia by permitting vessels of her volunteer fleet to pass the Dardanelles, says: "Russia possesses no rights as to the passage of the Dardanelles or Bosphorus which are not possessed by other powers also."

Will Contest.

By Associated Press.
SALEM (Mass.), Sept. 8.—E. T. Burly and ex-Judge Endicott this morning filed notice of intention to contest the will of Mary F. Hopkins-Searles of Methuen, Mass., on behalf of her adopted son, Timothy Hopkins. The ground of contest is understood to be undue influence and that the testatrix was not of sound mind. The hearing is fixed for September 22.

Judge Sawyer Dead.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—United States Circuit Judge Lorenzo Sawyer died suddenly last night. He had been ill with bronchitis. All State and Federal Courts are closed to-day out of respect to the memory of the late Judge Sawyer. The funeral takes place from the Congregational Church to-morrow afternoon.

Stricken With Paralysis.

By Cable and Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—A cablegram from Reid, United States Minister to France, received here this morning announces that Major Bundy, editor of the Mail and Express, who has been in Paris for some time, was stricken by apoplexy. He is now unconscious and his recovery seems doubtful.

Panama Canal.

By Cable and Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 8.—The police to-day searched the houses of several promoters of the Panama Canal Company with a view to obtaining further evidence in the investigation being made into the affairs of that organization.

Pork Admitted.

By Cable and Associated Press.
COPENHAGEN, Sept. 8.—United States Minister Carr has received notice of the removal of the prohibitions placed upon the importation of American pork, which will henceforth be admitted.

Ticket Agents.

By Associated Press.
ST. PAUL, Sept. 8.—The National Association of Ticket Agents elected officers to-day. Wallace of the Pennsylvania Railroad was chosen President.

New Mexican Tariff.

By Associated Press.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 8.—A dispatch from the City of Mexico gives a summary of a new Mexican tariff, which has just made its appearance in the Diario (official). The free list retains coal, coke, wood, pulp, lumber, railway, telegraph, telephone and electric light supplies, barbed wire, iron pipe, sheet iron, Portland cement, explosives for mines, power machinery, boilers and engines; wheels, cables, ores, cordage, agricultural implements and a number of other articles. Precious stones, formerly free, are taxed from $3 to $5 per carat. Sulphuric and muriatic acids, formerly free, will be three cents per kilogram. This is metric weight and equivalent to two and a half pounds.

These are no-advalorem duties, and, unless otherwise specified, the following are so much per kilogram: Liquors, wine and beer in glass, unchanged; liquors in wood reduced from 40 cents to 30 cents, and wine from 12 to 10, and beer to 8 cents. Many drugs and chemicals are reduced; phosphorus is reduced from 75 to 50 cents, while matches are increased from $1.20 to $1.50; common paper for certain purposes is reduced from 10 to 5 cents; brown wrapping paper from 45 to 25 cents; Bristol board to 25 and pasteboard to 15 cents. Playing cards were increased to $1.60; wall paper was 20 cents. It is divided into three classes and will pay 10 cents, 20 cents and 50 cents, according to description. Paper with printed heading, document blanks, monograms, as well as printed tickets of all kinds, will pay $1.

Raw cotton is unchanged, as also cotton cloth. There is some difference in threads and in underwear, with a few changes in lines. Silk practically is unchanged. Woollen carpets are lower, and there are reductions in woollen cloth, underwear, clothing, gloves and fringes. Grains are not changed. Preserved fruits are increased from 50 cents to 75 cents, Virginian leaf tobacco from 18 to 25 cents; crude petroleum from one cent to two; white refined unchanged. Fixed oils, not specified, reduced from 50 to 20 cents, and lubricating oils to 5 cents. Common soaps increased from 18 to 25 cents; common glass bottles reduced from 3 to 1 cent; glass and porcelain otherwise unchanged. Furniture, finished and ready for use, advanced 5 cents. Common wood furniture, unfinished, is reduced from 15 to 8 cents. Jewelry increased and will pay from $50 to $75, according to class. Carriages unchanged. Fire arms somewhat reduced. Rubber cloth and rubber clothing increased from 80 cents to $2. Machinery for industrial use, agricultural, mines and carts, to be free of duty when it is not arranged to be moved by crank or pedal; if so arranged it is to pay 5 cents.

Pork Surplus in Paris.

By Cable and Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 8.—The Times to-day says a decree of Germany, removing the embargo placed upon American pork, is a veritable coup de theatre astounding the agrarian party who believed in the axiom that the government would never withdraw the prohibition. Progressists are intoxicated with their success, their leading delusion being that free American pork means free grain in the near future. "German-American accord will conduce to results affecting the general commercial relations. France must watch this movement." The German government hopes through the pork concession to ward off the worst effects of the McKinley bill, but Qui Viva Verra. It is certain, however, that this negotiation is a true coup de fortune for the Republican party and for President Harrison's government.

Hungry Russians.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Standard's Moscow correspondent, commenting on the demands that come from all quarters for measures to relieve distress, says it is plain the distress is greater and more widespread than was at first supposed and that the worst is still to come.

Almost Incredible.

By Cable and Associated Press.
PARIS, Sept. 8.—A whole family in this city, numbering six, committed suicide yesterday. The father and mother showed the way by hanging themselves, and the others, who were adult children, imitated their parents.

Tin Plate Trade Cessing.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Board of Trade returns show the threatened contraction of British commerce has already commenced. The decrease in exports is largely due to the falling off in the tin plate trade.

People's Party.

By Associated Press.
BOSTON, Sept. 8.—The People's Party held a convention yesterday and nominated a ticket with Henry Winn for Governor and William J. Shields for Lieutenant Governor.

Columbian Commission.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—At to-day's session of the National Columbian Exposition, Mercer, of Wyoming, presented a resolution setting forth the question of policing the fair while open, as one of great importance, and setting forth the propriety of making arrangements with the various States for sending their militia to the fair in succession to act in the capacity of Guards of Honor and police upon the grounds. After some discussion the resolution was laid on the table as outside the powers of the commission. The committee on live stock reported a recommendation that a chief for that department be appointed, making it independent of the Department of Agriculture. (Adopted.)

The names of members of the standing committee on legislation were announced as follows: St. Clair, West Virginia; Allen, New York; Smalley, Vermont; Wormsley, Pennsylvania; Saunders, Mississippi; Breed, Massachusetts; Jones, Missouri; Ritchie, Ohio; Wilson, District of Columbia; Lannan, Utah; Harris, Virginia; Rucker, North Dakota.

A resolution for the appointment of a historian of the Fair was referred to the committee on Judiciary, with instructions to report what salary should be paid such official.

The action of the Commission taken last Saturday, putting the control of the Latin-American exhibit in the hands of the Director General was reconsidered and the exhibit again put in charge of W. E. Curtin, subject to the control of the Chief of the Foreign Department.

Last night at a conference of the Commissioners and lady managers of the territories, it was agreed the territories should consolidate in the erection of one building for their exhibits. It shall not cost less than $10,000. The Commission then adjourned to meet next April.

Condition of Dwyer.

Special to the GAZETTE.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—James Dwyer, the railroad man shot yesterday by officer Kelley, is in a dangerous condition and his chances for recovery are few. William Nicholson, who was in the restaurant at the time, states positively that Dwyer did not have a glass in his hand while he was beating Kelly.

The case of Kelly, who has been charged with assault to murder, was called this morning in the Police Court No. 2, and continued until the 22nd inst.

Over the Card Table.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—In the course of an altercation over a game of cards in the Italian quarters last night, Jas. Ross, an Italian, was shot and instantly killed, and his brother, George, lies in a critical condition. The two brothers, John and Nicoli Bolero, were accused of cheating. Words led to blows and one of the Boleros drew a revolver and shot the Ross brothers. One of the Boleros has been captured and the police are searching for the other.

No More Hungarians.

By Cable and Associated Press.
BUDA PEST, Sept. 8.—The government has issued a circular to the effect that the postal bureau will in the future refuse to deliver any prospectus or other documents sent out by the emigration agencies. The government will also take other measures to repress these agencies. The government's action in this particular forms a part of a general scheme to arrest emigration.

By Cable and Associated Press.

Concert in the Tabernacle.

President Willford Woodruff of the Mormon church, has granted the use of the Tabernacle at Salt Lake for the use of a concert to be given by the Choral Society at the time of the session of the Irrigation Congress, but he refuses the use of the Assembly Hall for the meeting of the congress on the ground that it is dedicated to sacred uses.

PIOTCH PICKINGS.

Railroad Being Rapidly Finished and Smelters Ready to Run. The Pioche Record of the 3rd inst. says:

Anne Carman departed last Friday via Salt Lake for Reno, where she will attend the Bishop's School for Girls for the next two years.

Matters are rapidly nearing completion at the new smelters, and if sufficient ore and coal were on hand, one of the stacks could be ready to blow in on Monday next.

Miners and general laborers are being shipped in here from Salt Lake, where it requires rustling to get them. Several loads came in during the week.

Last Thursday morning at Jack Rabbit, as Dave Lewis was coming off the 4:30 o'clock shift he killed a porcupine of immense size at the company's stable. The animal was as large as a good sized dog, and had quills six inches in length.

It is expected that the Jack Rabbit road will be laid by Saturday night to what will be called "Mendha Station," six miles from the works, where, for the present, ore from the Half Moon, Mendha and Day mines will be delivered. Water is to be piped to the station from the Highland springs. The railroad work from there on to Jack Rabbit will be pushed on as rapidly as possible, the greatest difficulty experienced being to get graders.

In order to present to the world what Nevada is capable of doing in an agricultural way, the GAZETTE will arrange anything sent to it, in an attractive manner at the Pavilion during Fair week. Apples and other fruit, grain of all kinds, potatoes of different varieties, vegetables of every description, hay, etc., will be arranged, due credit given, and everything necessary to make an attractive display, carried out. We make this offer in order to enable those who cannot come to the Fair to send something; and again a farmer who cannot afford the time, for instance, of preparing but one box of apples for exhibition would hesitate about putting it in alone, when, if exhibited in a State collection, it would show off to better advantage. Parties sending in any article can rest assured of having it properly entered, and if awarded a premium the same will be forwarded to them as soon as collected. Exhibits are respectfully solicited, not only from the farmers in Nevada, but from those in Lassen, Modoc, Sierra and Plumas counties, California. All who wish to avail themselves of our offer should carefully mark their names on the articles sent and write the GAZETTE that such and such a thing had been sent for exhibition. It will save us lots of trouble by sending the truck for exhibition the week before Fair.

The New York Irish World contains the following:

"Whilst Free Trade and Mugwump organs are affecting to sneer at Reciprocity, foreign journals are freely admitting that Mr. Blaine's method of extending American trade has struck a heavy blow at European interests. They frankly confess that he has brought about a state of things that will inevitably result in handing over the trade of Cuba, San Domingo and the South American Republics to the United States. For instance the Berlin export, the official journal of German merchants engaged in foreign trade, in a lengthy article warns its readers of the loss Germany and other European nations will suffer through Mr. Blaine's diplomacy.

"We commend the following extract to the consideration of the Free Traders and Mugwumps who are trying to belittle Mr. Blaine's great achievements in the State Department:

"Mr. Blaine's diplomatic dexterity has made Brazil a real domain of the North. European wishes and remonstrances could not get a hearing in Rio de Janeiro. The exporting countries of Europe have lost vast, well-paying markets. Several months ago American diplomats tried to convince Spain of the necessity of signing a treaty with the United States by which Cuba and Porto Rico would be protected against the workings of the McKinley Law. The Spanish Government put up many obstacles, but the Yankee was sure of his victory in the end, and Spain, being afraid that Cuba may free herself from the European yoke, yielded. According to the Reciprocity Treaty sugar, honey, hides, and coffee from Cuba and Porto Rico may enter free into the United States, while tobacco and iron ore have to pay the duty laid down in the McKinley Law. This shows that the United States lets in free only such articles as it cannot produce, or, at least, not in sufficient quantity. The Yankees hold a weighty weapon in their hands by which they will commercially conquer all Spanish America. A gloomy prospect for the exporting industries of Europe."

"These words show that Mr. Blaine's is thoroughly appreciated abroad. He has secured for his country, as the Berlin Export points out, all the advantages of extended trade without inflicting any injury on established home industries. This is what makes Reciprocity as different from Free Trade as day is from night.

"The German newspaper from which we have already quoted estimates that the Spanish Reciprocity Treaty means for Spanish merchants and manufacturers the loss of an export trade of at least $5,000,000 a year. It informs its readers that Spain will not be the only loser. 'It will not be easy,' it says, 'for the exporting countries to prevent the influence of the United States in Spanish America, and they will have to stand still with crossed arms and see the exports of Europe diminishing year by year. It will be difficult with European merchants who live in the West Indies and South America, engaged in the importing business. They will take up catalogues and samples from Rhode Island, New Jersey, etc., and send their orders to New York. It certainly will not be long before in Rio, Caracas, and Havana the agents of European firms will have to hear the stereotyped answer: 'I am sorry your articles would not pay any more; we get them from New York.'"

"This disinterested testimony as to the practical workings of Reciprocity is an unintentional tribute to the far-seeing statesmanship of Mr. Blaine, whose persistent and effective championship of Reciprocity has opened up to the country rich markets that will in time add greatly to the prosperity of the nation. To no other American statesman does the country owe so great a debt of gratitude for the positive as well as the prospective benefits he has conferred on it.

We can see no use in the County Commissioners, who are ex-officio fathers of the town, passing ordinances to have them laughed at and trampled under foot at every opportunity by everybody. There is an ordinance requiring everyone to connect with the sewers, but it is being evaded on nearly every street in town and no one seems to take interest enough in the matter to see that the law is enforced. If we mistake not there is one calculated to prevent the shiftless and slovenly from throwing their filth into the alleys, but it is being violated every day by people throwing dead cats, chickens and dogs, ashes and filth of all kinds out to become a pest-breeding nuisance in the nostrils of everybody. The only way to stop the thing is to make an example of the first person found violating any ordinance and have the conviction published to the world. This may stop it.

The county is issuing county scrip on the general road fund that will not be payable for fifteen months hence. The roads in this county are costing a pile of money and when the fund is fifteen months behind now, the question naturally arises, what are we to do for the coming year? The Commissioners should begin to "look a little out" for our taxes are high enough now, God knows. That the general road fund should be in such a bankrupt condition shows poor management on the part of those having matters in charge.

THE STAGE HELD UP.

The Driver Ordered to 'Pass Out the Box and Then Drive On.

The stage, well loaded with passengers and heavily weighted down with express matter and mail bags, rolled out of Hamilton at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of November 20, 1871, bound for Pioche. As this was a daily occurrence, it was nothing unusual in itself, for the mining excitement was at the highest. Raymond & Ely stock was selling at $125 per share, that a short time before was only $7. Many holders had suddenly become rich, and this stimulated the wild cat operations of the camp to such an extent that Pioche was filled with high-salaried superintendents and secretaries, fighters and miners, and all indicated a thriving and booming mining camp.

MONEY WAS PLENTY And high priced jewelry ornamented the shirt fronts and vests of the mining officials. The stages that transported the bullion out of camp, also carried in coin and valuables by express and were consequently considered legitimate prizes by the road agents that often held them up. On the day above named the express box was observed to be heavier than usual, and although the agent and driver tried to conceal its weight when stopping it away in the front boot, passengers quickly remarked that the boys would make a good haul if they went for it. The stage rolled along through Eberhardt canyon and on over the dusty road during the afternoon and reached the supper station without any interruption. It continued on during the evening and until after midnight, with the usual halts at stations for a

CHANGE OF HORSES And the usual exchange of small talk between driver and hostlers. One of the passengers was Jot Travis, who was one of the owners of the line, which at that time was earning money rapidly. Another passenger was a new agent for the express and stage departments at Pioche. About midnight a station was reached and the usual change of horses made, after which it rolled on its way, and soon the passengers were all asleep. Half an hour afterward they were awakened by the stopping and sudden starting of the stage. Travis, more alert than the others, awoke first, and reaching to unbutton a curtain, said to the express agent, "What was that," and got a sleepy reply "O! nothing; guess we just left a station." "No," said Travis, "we passed that two miles back. I heard something said about the box. I believe we've been robbed," and he was making haste to throw open the curtain when the express

AGENT HELD HIM BACK, saying: "Go slow. If we have been robbed you had better not poke your head out just now." "That's so," said Travis, "but I think we ought to stop and find out." He was again cautioned to wait a minute, for the stage was now bowling along as fast as six panting horses could haul it, and it was very evident something unusual had occurred. Travis was impetuous and intrepid and called out to the driver, "Pat! what's the matter?" and the reply came back in husky, muffled tones, "The boys took the box." "What's that?" said Travis; "What did they say?" and the driver answered in the same subdued and hoarse whisper, "They took the box and told me to drive on, and said their guns carried 250 yards, and I'm not out of range yet," and with a sharp

FLOURISH OF RIFLE He urged on the panting horses. Travis was furious. He insisted on getting out right there and pursuing the road agents at once; but when admonished that it would be hazardous with only revolvers and on foot to make an attack on the well-armed robbers, armed with Winchester, he subsided, but with some profanity over the fate that compelled him to. That night the stage rolled in to Pioche minus the treasure box and $1,700 in coin and jewelry. The Sheriff, John Kane, took the trail, stimulated by a big reward, but the robbers were never caught, although they were believed to have been in Pioche three days afterwards gambling on their ill-gotten gains.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. The Business Transacted Yesterday After the Gazette's Press Time.

Charles Gilling, President of the Reno Lumber Co., appeared before the Board and complained that he had been assessed a higher per cent than other like corporations. For instance, the bank paid on its paid up capital and was not assessed at all on the surplus, while he was assessed to within 40 per cent of the total valuation of his company property.

Allen C. Bragg appeared and asked for a reduction on his newspaper plant on the ground that it was assessed at more than double what the Morning Journal was, and it occurred to him that it was an unequal assessment. Both Gilling and Bragg were fired from the sacred precinct of the equalization room with the information that nothing could be done, and it was ordered that the assessment should stand. The Board allowed a day of the bills and adjourned until to-day when the balance of the bills will be allowed and will be found in the Gazette's advertising columns.

Accident to Mrs. Colcord. The Carson Tribune of last evening says: Mrs. R. K. Colcord, wife of the Governor, while engaged yesterday in putting a curtain that had been displaced back in position, became dizzy and fell from a step-ladder to the floor with such force as to badly sprain her shoulder and knee. Dr. Lee, who was immediately summoned, says Mrs. Colcord will be confined to the house for a week and possibly longer. Luckily no bones were fractured.

Clawson Will. The will of Harry Clawson is to be contested by his two children, one of whom—the boy—he left $1,000, and the girl he left out of the question altogether, claiming that she had gone to the bad.

A FRIEND HEARD FROM.

Miss Quailfe at Her New Home at Albany, N. Y.

Miss Eva Quailfe writes to a friend in Reno the following interesting letter telling of her travels since leaving Reno, and as she left so many warm friends behind, the letter is published in full, knowing that anything from Miss Quailfe will be read with much interest:

CONCORD, Pa., Sept. 1, 1891. July and August have passed, since I said good-bye to Reno and its pleasant associations. Since then the time has been spent by me in short visits in various directions. Salt Lake City was my first objective point, where the climate always reminds me of dear old Nevada; then on to Omaha, where I spent a delightful ten days, although the heat was somewhat oppressive after our mountain air. Then I branched off down into Missouri, where I experienced steady, moist, warm weather, frequent showers, and hot days and nights, although these living there constantly thought it cooler summer than usual. Fayette and Booneville were the only places I visited in the State. I then went north to Minneapolis, where the cool, bracing air and excellent water made me rapidly rally from the depression caused by the heat in Missouri. Minneapolis is a city with an assured brilliant future. Its many fine buildings, clean streets, good system of electric motor cars, and many other advantages, all make it possible that it will be the third city in the Union, as it now is to be. It is connected with St. Paul by electric motor cars. The latter city seemed in some respects a little less attractive than Minneapolis. The streets were narrower and not quite so well kept. We had a fine view of the city and the Mississippi river from the top of the Globe building, some ten stories in height. About both cities there are many lovely places to visit. I particularly enjoyed my day at Minnehaha Falls and the Soldiers' Home. The latter is situated on high land on the banks of the river five miles from Minneapolis. Captain Thomson, Miller is in charge of it. Last year eighty thousand dollars was appropriated by the State for its support and for the relief of the old soldiers who could not live at the Home. A third building was in process of erection when I visited it. From Minneapolis I came on to Chicago, where I only remained about two hours. From thence to Lansing, Mich., where I had the pleasure of attending the commencement exercises of the State Agricultural College. Then I diverged off to read one carload of nails, one carload of Glider barbed wire direct from the factory, one carload of sugar and a large quantity of gilt-edged butter from the north.

The man who wears a straw hat on a raw, rainy day in September would wear low russet shoes in a snow-storm. Buy your fall clothing, hats and shoes from John Sunderland.

W. O. H. Martin received yesterday from the East one carload of nails, one carload of Glider barbed wire direct from the factory, one carload of sugar and a large quantity of gilt-edged butter from the north.

Bolls and pimples and other affections arising from impure blood may appear at this season, when the blood is heated. Hood's Sarsaparilla removes the cause of the troubles by purifying, vitalizing, and enriching the blood, and at the same time gives strength to the whole system.

The White Pine News says: We learn that the Pioche Record is to change hands October 1st. The Pioche Co. Company is the purchaser. It is seldom that a newspaper thrives, especially a country paper, when conducted by individual interests. The public view with suspicion the control of the press by gigantic corporate power.

Mrs. Dan Keegan of No. 261 West Thirtieth street, New York City, presented her husband Tuesday evening with a baby weighing eighteen pounds. Some say that the young giant weighs twenty-one pounds. If he keeps on growing at the present rate he will be the strongest man in America. He will surpass John L. Sullivan.

Bugs and Beetles. The big bugs—not the 400, but more than that, for the air seems full of them—were having a jolly time around the electric lights last night. They balanced on their wings close up to the light bulbs and gorged themselves on the little gnats that balanced close to them. Then a dull thud would announce the fall of one of the over-ful upper ten, and passing boot heels would crush the life out of the big bugs and little bugs and nature's equilibrium would be restored—the big bugs ate the little bugs and the boot heels settled the whole business.

Death from a Surgical Operation. George M. Beatty, who was shot by W. W. Booth on the 24th of June last at Candelaria, died in San Francisco on Friday. He is supposed to have died from the effects of a surgical operation for an aneurism of the femoral artery, which was caused by the bullet which entered the right groin, rupturing the outside coating of the artery. He was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and aged about 28 years.

Procure It Before Leaving Home. Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of last May, while in Des Moines, en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he prepared a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. For sale by J. B. McCullough.

EXTRAVAGANCE. Our County Fathers Need Pleading Up—Two Men Employed to Watch Three Old Tramps.

Street Guard Robbins, who started out last Monday morning with five or six old drunks and chain-gang vags, came in at noon with only three, the others having skipped. To-day about noon a GAZETTE reporter noticed him pacing up and down, with the tread of a Roman soldier, in front of one poor old played out individual, whom the reporter took to be a vag, and one who had not the vitality left to run away—perhaps he had not been in jail long enough to get filled up so he could travel. On Court street Guard Dickey is watching two old bums dig sewer trench. The GAZETTE would suggest that the Commissioners employ one or two more men to watch Kobbins and Dickey, for if they should conclude to go on a strike and quit their job, then these delapidated old drunks might take a notion to walk off, thus leaving the town in a bad fix for "help." Paying out five dollars per day for two guards to watch three tramps, who do not earn ten cents a day, would look like extravagance, and the Board should consider the condition that it is, but possibly the Board considers it economy, and as they seem to be invincible the taxpayers must stand it.

McKISSICK'S OPERA HOUSE. Faust the Next Attraction and should be Appreciated.

On Tuesday evening September 15th, Lew Morrison will appear at the above place in his celebrated character of Mephisto, in Faust. Of his portrayal of this character the Indianapolis Sentinel says: It differs somewhat from Mr. Irving's version, but will not suffer in comparison. Mr. Morrison has portrayed "Mephisto" more than fifteen hundred times, and the last night he showed a wonderful proficiency in the delivery of his lines, and a thorough understanding of all the lights and shades of the rather difficult character. Several times the audience applauded and demands for his appearance after the fall of the curtain. The scenery, costumes, stage mountings and surroundings are beautiful and in perfect taste. Many of the mechanical effects were elaborate and thrilling, and the audience was frequently surprised by some unexpected occurrence in stage mechanism.

Tourists. Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

The Tortures of the Inquisition Indicted by the dread Torquemada have abominable apotrophes in the shape of chronic rheumatism and malaria. Attack these agonizing complaints before they reach the chronic stage with the superb blood purifier, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will assuredly expel their virus from the life stream. To procrastinate is to encourage the growth of incipient rheumatism, which rapidly tightens its grip upon the system. It is the octopus of disease, and painful indeed is the clasp of its dreadful tentacles. Be prompt, therefore, take time by the forelock, always remembering that both rheumatism and gout, close relatives, are dangerous as well as painful. Debility, chills and fever, bilious remittent dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, nervousness and kidney disease succumb to the Bitters. Appetite and the ability to sleep well are improved by it.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.
